AVSA 2017 Orlando Convention Needs Your Help!

More individuals than ever before are needed to host the Orlando Convention show room! The show will be open to the public for two full days, and the public will be paying an admission fee. Hosts are needed to greet our guests as they enter the room, to verify that they have paid admission, to encourage them to ask questions and to invite them to join AVSA (the cost of admission will be applied to their AVSA membership dues). This is an important job!!

If you would be willing to serve for a one-hour shift, please complete the coupon below by April 28, 2017, and send it to: Lynn DiMaio, 2319 Treasure Isle Dr. #49, Palm Beach Gardens, FL 33410; Email: LDMRNC@aol.com; Phone: 561-626-9984.
